

Figure 1. The proposed workflow for sustainable urea synthesis involves: i) development of reactive bimetallic catalysts, ii) electrolyte composition engineering to enhance adsorption of reaction intermediates, and iii) optimization of reaction conditions to maximize the selectivity of the designed electrocatalysts.